MPB Community encourages you to review the privacy statements of Web sites you choose to link to from MPB Community so that you can understand how those Web sites collect, use and share your information. MPB Community is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on Web sites outside of the MPB Community and MPB Community family of Web sites.

Use of your Personal Information

MPB Community does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties. MPB Community may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party. In addition, MPB Community may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within MPB Community to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

MPB Community Web sites will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on MPB Community or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of MPB Community; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of MPB Community, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The MPB Community Web site use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a Web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize MPB Community pages, or register with MPB Community site or services, a cookie helps MPB Community to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same MPB Community Web site, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the MPB Community features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the MPB Community services or Web sites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

MPB Community secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. MPB Community secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other Web sites, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol.

Changes to this Statement

MPB Community will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to reflect company and customer feedback. MPB Community encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how MPB Community is protecting your information.
